

First-Year Odyssey Seminar

First-Year Odyssey Seminars

The First-Year Odyssey seminars will allow you to engage with professors and other first-year students in a small class environment. This is your chance to explore topics you never had in high school, topics that interest you but may have nothing to do with a major you intend to pursue. This is a great opportunity to learn about something new and exciting from a professor who is passionate about what he or she does.

The Highlights

- 300+ Seminars
- Small sections of 15-18 students
- Topics related to faculty interest and area of scholarship
- Taught by tenured and tenure-track faculty
- One credit hour, graded

START: Go to the First-Year Odyssey website at www.fyo.uga.edu and click on the FYO ORIENTATION WORKSHEET link in the ATTENTION box at the bottom of the page.

ENTER your name on the First-Year Odyssey Worksheet

How to choose a First-Year Odyssey Seminar

Use the search features on the website to choose ten (10) topics that interest you. You will enter the information for each seminar on the First-Year Odyssey worksheet that you will bring with you to Orientation.

BROWSE ALL SEMINARS

CLICK on “SEMINARS” (tab at the top)

- This will display a page to browse all seminars alphabetically by title. The CRN number appears next to the seminar title. You will use the CRN number to register in Athena.
- If you find a seminar title interesting, click on “Details” for more information. You will be able to see a description of the course, CRN number, instructor information, and the seminar location. (To close out of the details box, click the “X” at the top right.)
- If you find this seminar interesting, leave it on your list and go to the next seminar that interests you. If you are not interested in this seminar, click on the trashcan icon next to the seminar to remove it from the list. Proceed down the list narrowing your choices as you go.
- To restore the entire list, click on “View All” on the top left.

ENTER the information for the seminars that interest you on the worksheet.
